Description: Transcendentalism was the first major intellectual movement in U.S. history, championing the inherent divinity of each individual, as well as the value of collective social action. In the mid-nineteenth century, the movement took off, changing how Americans thought about religion, literature, the natural world, class distinctions, the role of women,...

Review: Decent beginners overview if you're not familiar with 1800s writers or the Mass. intellectuals in particular but you should know that the two most read from the movement in modern times are Thoreau and Emerson; and that Thoreau's work influenced everyone from Gandhi Martin Luther King to Tolstoy to the freedom fighters in South Africa. So in spite...
